YARRA VALLEY ARTS / YERING STATION SCULPTURE EXHIBITION & AWARDS 2021

INTRODUCTION

The Yarra Valley Arts / Yering Station Sculpture Exhibition & Awards is a collaborative event hosted by Yering Station, a premier winery in the Yarra Valley region of Victoria with an arts program encompassing painting, photography and sculpture, and Yarra Valley Arts, a not-for-profit organisation dedicated to enhancing the cultural lives of Yarra Valley residents and visitors.

Respected for its consistency and longevity, the exhibition showcases a cross section of new Australian sculpture from both emerging and established artists. Having grown steadily since 2001, it is now the longest running annual sculpture exhibition in Victoria and an iconic event on the Australian arts calendar.

Staged across dramatic landscaped gardens designed by Michael McCoy and the historically significant gardens of Chateau Yering, the exhibition provides ample opportunities for the installation of outdoor sculpture, while the long indoor corridors and breezeways offer indoor and sheltered spaces. Finalists are encouraged to select a site which best presents their work.

The exhibition at Yering Station runs alongside a concurrent exhibition of sculpture staged through the Collins Street offices of long-standing sponsor Arnold Bloch Leibler. As of 2021, a small sculpture exhibition will also be showing at Yarra Valley Arts' physical home, the YAVA Gallery & Arts Hub in Healesville.

Dr Ewen Jarvis (Exhibition Coordinator, Yarra Valley Arts / Yering Station Sculpture Exhibition & Awards) is a professional writer and public academic with over a decade of arts administration experience.

The event takes a 30% commission on sculpture sales, 20% of which is donated to My Room Children's Cancer Charity, while 10% is donated to Yarra Valley Arts towards the provision and promotion of arts events across the region.

The sculpture exhibition is supported by long term sponsors who share the vision and aims of the organisers - to foster the development of contemporary Australian sculpture. Arnold Bloch Leibler – lawyers and advisers, Yarra Ranges Council and RACV Country Club have been particularly strong supporters across the years. The event is also supported by a growing list of esteemed arts professionals who have been members of the selection and judging panel in the past and who assists us in growing the exhibition's profile.

22. The sale price on the confirmation form will be the catalogue price. The organising committee will not be held responsible for any discrepancies.

SECURITY

23. There is a security patrol at Yering Station twice nightly, however the exhibition organisers hold no insurance against damage or burglary of works. Public Liability insurance is covered by the exhibition.
24. The exhibition does not have an accidental / malicious damage insurance policy and artists are advised to individually insure their works against damage and theft. This is not a traditional gallery situation, and although we do our best to safeguard artworks some people will invariably touch. Please speak with the curator if you have any installation queries.

DEINSTALLATION & CONCLUSION OF EXHIBITION

25. If the artist wishes an agent to collect their work, authorisation must be in writing to the curator.
26. Artists will be responsible for the delivery of sold work to a radius of 100km from Yering Station or arrangement thereof with the purchaser.
27. Payment by electronic funds transfer for sale of exhibits will occur within six weeks of the art buyer's final payment.
