Welcome to Yering Station

Considered a jewel of the Yarra Valley, Yering Station marks the birthplace of the Yarra Valley with history spanning two centuries. It was on our estate that the very first vines were planted in the state of Victoria. Throughout our estate, you are consistently met with remarkable history balanced by timeless, modern-day architecture.

Arriving at Yering Station, guests are greeted with the sight of our magnificent avenue of Elm trees, planted in the mid-1850's as a wedding gift to the then-founder's bride. Through the Michael McCoy designed gardens, guests make their way through to our estate buildings including; our heritage-listed Historic Barn, our charming circa 1850s Cellar Door and the superb, modern architecture of our signature restaurant overlooking the Great Dividing Range.
